Netherlands

Very professional team that makes sure they understand the task very well. Good quality work and proper communication. They also test their work very well, so you are assured it's really completed when delivered. Highly recommended.

Karen, United States

Vijayakumar Maniraj, OX SoftwareS Private Limited is a great company to work with, very honest workers, efficient, clean jobs completed on time and under budget. I will work with them again and again!

Simon, Sweden

VIJAYAKUMAR MANIRAJ and his agency is extremely cooperative and skilled in the area they are working. They integrated Klarna Checkout Module for me very quickly and fixed the bugs that were causing conflicts while activating the payment systems. They were very patient and willing to answer my technical questions with great enthusiasms. I highly recommend this team for any employer in Upwork.

Martin, Latvia

Competent and honest work, done on time and budget - OxSoftwares is definitely a solid and dependable partner who works efficiently without cutting corners. Cheers!

Benedict Tan, Malaysia

Excellent people who asked many relevant before committing to the project, giving me a confidence boost that these guys know what's required. Overall 9/10 one point for some room for improvement in attention to details.

Matt, United Kingdom

Good knowledge of magento and did exactly what I wanted at a great price

Kia, United Arab Emirates

I have had nothing but positive experience! They deliver on time, easily understand my needs and have super tech knowledge. You are in safe hands here!

Rob, Australia

Vijay and his team are very very professional and go beyond just completing your job they also research to find if there are better solutions Highly recommend using Vijay.

Nithin, India

It was a wonderful experience while working with Vijayakumar. He and his team understood what the actual requirements, without any long communications. I am very thankful for the support and dedication for the team.
